WAKE UP America ! Are You Voting for Truman for President ?

MR. ROOSEVELT'S HEALTH

Boss Hannegan of the Democratic national committee charges that there is a whispering campaign regarding Mr. Roosevelt's health. There is no need to whisper. That is one of the principal issues of this campaign and cannot be evaded by false appeals to delicacy.

Mr. Roosevelt is an applicant for a job. The voters to whom he is applying have the duty to satisfy themselves that he is physically capable of discharging it. Their responsibility is in no wit different from that of the President himself in making sure that the boy he puts in the army will not break down under the stress of combat in Germany or the Pacific jungles.

The Presidency of the United States left its mark, physically, on every man who held it during the last generation. It broke Wilson and contributed to Harding's death. His physicians said that it shortened the life of even so abstemious and calm a man as Calvin Coolidge, who had about as easy a time in the White House as any modern President. Its demands during the next four years are obviously going to be greater than at any time in our history, including even the present term.

Evidence increases that Mr. Roosevelt is not in fit physical condition to meet those demands. His absences from his office because of illness, some of which have been concealed by censorship, have become more frequent. Recent photographs and the deterioration of the once magic radio voice tell the same story. In opening his speaking campaign before the teamsters in Washington, Mr. Roosevelt spoke from a wheelchair. It was the first time he had found it necessary to do so in a public appearance. His age militates against his condition improving substantially, so long as he attempts to fulfill the duties of his office. Men of 62 have lost the resilience of youth in recovering from illness and fatigue.

Sen. Truman, if he were elected, would thus take office with larger prospects of succeeding to the Presidency than any Vice President has had within the last century. That is what the fourth term machine dares not admit. If they confess that there is the slightest chance that Mr. Roosevelt may die or become incapacitated in the next four years, they are faced with the grinning skeleton of Truman the bankrupt, Truman the pliant tool of Boss Pendergast in looting Kansas City's county government, Truman the yes-man and apologist in the senate for political gangsters. To the New Dealers, Mr. Roosevelt is as clearly the indispensable man as Truman is the dispensable man.

That is why, in the series of racial and class appeals that are the basis of the Democratic campaign, it is necessary to soft pedal the question of the President's health and keep Truman in the background. The fourth term appeal to Negroes furnishes an example. The plea is being made to Negro voters that Mr. Roosevelt has been their great friend. It is a specious appeal, as informed Negroes know, but it is far safer to talk about Roosevelt than to admit in Negro communities that there is the slightest possibility of Sen. Truman succeeding to the Presidency.

Sen. Truman comes from a border state. His home town, Kansas City, is one of the points at which the railroads attach the Jim Crow cars to southbound trains. Sen. Truman got the nomination because he could be cleared with Sidney Hillman, and still was acceptable to the southern Democrats. He played their game when the anti-poll tax bill was pending in the senate. He was paired against the motion to limit debate on that bill. By helping defeat the cloture motion, he made it possible for opponents of the bill to talk it to death, which they proceeded to do. That is the man whom Negroes must vote for if they vote for Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt in this campaign is the prisoner of the people whom he has placed in power, people who never were elected to office and never could be elected. It is immaterial to them what happens to Roosevelt, once he is reelected. If he dies or becomes incapacitated, they figure that they can do business with Truman.

Clear Everything With Sidney

(From The Individualist, Danville, Va.)

Henry J. Taylor, radio commentator and author of the widely read book, "Men in Motion" (Double-Day Doran), in his September series of broadcasts gave some pertinent facts about the background of Sidney Hillman, the Russian born unioneer who organized the Political Action Committee to raise the largest political campaign fund ever known for the purpose of electing Mr. Roosevelt to a fourth term; and who appears to be the real power behind the throne in the New Deal Administration. The biographical sketch is too long to be reproduced in full, but the paragraphs given below should be of especial interest to Southern people who, because of a hidebound tradition, are expected to supply the electoral votes without which Mr. Roosevelt has no chance of winning a fourth term. Those who want full details can write to Henry J. Taylor, 230 Park Avenue, New York, 17, N. Y., and ask for the complete series on Sidney Hillman.

"Sidney Hillman came to the United States as a political refugee on August 10, 1907.

"He worked as a clerk for Sears Roebuck and Company in Chicago, and was next employed as an apprentice-cutter in a clothing firm. There is some question as to whether Mr. Hillman ever actually worked at any trade as long as two full years throughout the period he has been in our country . . . . .

"Under the leadership of Sidney Hillman the New York contingent of the United Garment Workers Union staged a battle within that organization at Nashville, Tennessee, in 1914 . . . As a result, a new organization was formed called "The Amalgamated Clothing Workers" and Sidney Hillman took over the presidency. . .

"Hillman organized the Amalgamated Textile Workers in 1919, along with Paul Blanchard, who, during a strike at Utica, New York, made the following statement: 'I am sometimes ashamed that I am an American. We must try to abolish the superstition of patriotism. I am an American only by accident of birth.'

"Returning to Moscow in 1921, Hillman reported on several discussions with Lenin at the Kremlin. It was at that time, in Moscow, that Hillman had his earliest relationship with the communist leader Earl Browder, who had been sentenced to the Federal Penitentiary in Leavenworth, Kansas, in 1919 for his activities in opposition to America's entrance into the war, and who was again convicted of passport fraud in 1940, and imprisoned in the Federal penitentiary until pardoned by President Roosevelt.*

"Sidney Hillman's unions' activities drew him into questions surrounding our ganglands — especially in the matter of the most notorious musclemen and murder group in our city headed by Louis Buchalter, alias Lepke, who was convicted and finally executed at Sing Sing as the head of 'Murder, Incorporated'.

"In 1931 a manufacturer of boy's clothing named Guido Ferreri was in a long wrangle with Local No. 4 of Sidney Hilman's Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union . . . . it is alleged that Ferreri was threatened by a labor leader. In any case, on July 31, 1931, Guido Ferreri was shot to death in front of his home at 1616 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn.

"The District Attorney said this was the first murder carried out by the Brooklyn Murder Syndicate. At Lepke's trial for murder it was testified that Lepke was hired as slugger and strong-arm man to do the persuading for Amalgamated.

"Sidney Hillman was not arrested. That should be made plain. Sidney Hillman came to the police station with his attorney, Fiorello LaGuardia, whom Hillman later supported for Mayor of New York and who is still Mayor today. Hillman was questioned at the police station by Acting Captain Vincent Sweeney, chief of the Brooklyn detective bureau. If any record of this interrogation remains I can't find it. . . . .

"When LaGuardia soon afterwards became Mayor he appointed Acting Captain Sweeney to a judge's bench as a city magistrate . . . .

"When Thomas E. Dewey finally became District Attorney he wanted to question Lepke in all this business about the murder of Ferreri . .

"Lepke was hiding out. He hung around basements right here in New York until Dewey's men were all but breathing down his neck. Lepke's problem was not to get into the hands of Tom Dewey. So . . . Lepke surrendered. He gave himself up at 28th Street and 5th Avenue—out of Dewey's jurisdiction—into Federal Hands, into the jurisdiction of the office of President Roosevelt's Attorney General, Mr. Francis Biddle.

"Lepke promptly pleaded guilty of operating a ten million dollar dope-selling ring. He was convicted on December 20, 1939, and sentenced to 14 years in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas . . . . well out of the jurisdiction of the State of New York. . . . .

"Now Lepke was the head of a murder syndicate . . . . Murder was his business . . . . a Brooklyn jury found Lepke guilty of murdering Joseph Rosen in Brooklyn candy store on September 30, 1936. The court sentenced Lepke to be electrocuted for this murder.

"In that instance Lepke had acted to silence Rosen. Rosen had been a trucking contractor who had threatened to tell Mr. Dewey that he had been put out of business by Lepke in the interest of Cutters Local No. 4 of Sidney Hillman's Amalgamated Cothing Workers. Rosen

* Students of history will recall that Lenin and Trotsky were sent to Russia in 1916-17, by the Germans, to stir up a Russian counter-revolution for the purpose of taking Russia out of War I. Also that some Russians claiming to be reformed Reds, have said that German officers were reorganizing the Russian Army until shortly before Hitler attacked Russia in 1941.

Why You Should Vote 'Yes' on No. 12

A recent ruling upheld by the Second Circuit Court of Appeals directs attention to one inevitable result of the Supreme Court's decision to exempt labor unions from the scope of the anti-trust laws.

A New York City local of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, aspiring to what the court called "exceedingly" higher wages and shorter working hours, entered into an agreement with New York manufacturers of electrical equipment. Under the agreement, the electrical workers got the wages and working hours they wanted. In return, they undertook to refuse to work on products of out-of-town electrical manufacturing concerns, and the union was strong enough in the city to enforce this agreement. This enabled the local manufacturers to absorb their increased costs and probably to add to their profits by charging two and three times as much for their products as out-of-town manufacturers were getting for similar equipment. One New York concern actually had two price lists, one for goods sold in the city and a much lower one for sales in other areas. It was a lucrative arrangement for the union and the New York manufacturers, but the consuming public, of course, was being subjected to a refined form of extortion.

Manufacturers who could not sell their products in New York because of the boycott—General Electric, Westinghouse and others—brought suit for an injuction, and this was granted by the District Court. But the Court of Appeals, asserting that the Supreme Court had held this type of union activity to be immune to judicial interference, decided last week that the courts were powerless to protect the public against even the most flagrant abuses of union power.

This state of affairs which ought to give pause to those who profess to be concerned with the welfare of the consumer, and who are constantly promising the more abundant life. The fact is that the consumer is trapped by a new type of union activity which adds enormously to the price of things that he must buy. Since the courts are unwililng to protect the interest of the masses of the people, the only possible remedy lies in congressional action, which will be forthcoming when an outraged public opinion demands it, and not before.—Evening Star, Washington, D. C.

Wake Up, America !

POSSIBILITY OF TRUMAN TAKING HELM EMPHASIZED BY MISSOURI NEWSPAPERS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo.,—In Missouri, as in other States, Senator Truman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, is becoming more and more an issue in the campaign.

It is linked with the question of President Roosevelt's health. The recent death of Wendell L. Willkie at 52—who was 10 years younger than the President—has served to focus public attention on the uncertainty of human life.

As a result, voters are being asked to consider whether they wish to gamble on the possibility of Senator Truman's becoming President, in the event of victory for the Roosevelt-Truman ticket one week hence.

The people of Missouri are being asked in the columns of the newspaper what kind of a President Mr. Truman would make, what his experience has been that would enable him to take over the job of Chief Executive, and to whom he would be indebted and why for such a position.

Roberts Discusses Situation.

Roy A. Roberts, writing in the Kansas City Star, of which he is managing editor, had the following to say about this question of the President's health, after a 10-day trip to Washington and New York:

"A delicate subject nobody likes to discuss. The sudden death of Wendell L. Willkie emphasized the strain and burden on men in public life. The question immediately bobbed into the open. It was met by carefully planted stories from the White House that the President was in fine shape. This subject will get more and more attention as election day approaches. If the President makes no more public appearanes before election day, it will cause additional comment.

"This much can be said at this time. The whispers of a serious character going over the country are not correct. The inspired stories of his vigor, likewise, are not correct. The facts are just what common sense would indicate. After 12 grinding years in the White House, carrying a superhuman burden, the President is thoroughly tired, worn out man today, much older than his 62 years of age would call for. It is entirely proper, not ghoulish, that this should be taken into account when considering who should run the country the next four years with the terrific problems ahead."

Questions Out in Open.

This quotation is given as a sample of the discussion which is going on in the press, taken from one of the most widely read newspapers in this section of the country. Robert S. Hannegan, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, speaking in New York, has charged that the issue of the President's health is due to a whispering campaign. It is not a whispering campaign out here. It is discussed very much in the open. It is a question which is most frequently asked as the campaign draws to a close.

The Cause of anti-Semitism

Jews claim and pose in the role of Liberators, Messiahs of the world. They are "chosen" by the Lord to bring Freedom and Justice to the oppressed. The Communist always points to the shackles of oppression and promises Liberty and Plenty.

The man who seduces a woman with promises of Love, Adoration and Marriage for eternal Happiness, but turns out to be a scoundrel cannot claim "persecution" when the girl's relatives give him a good trouncing within an inch of his life and confiscate his property to pay for the damage and the upkeep of his child.

But look at the Jew !

The Jew tells you what you must do and when you disagree he boycotts you, puts you on the blacklist and persecutes you to destroy your business. He organizes and infilters and usurps powers never conceded him by open covenants openly agred upon. And finally he rouses the mob to assault you and crucify you.

Jews make claims that Jesus was one of them, they brag that Spinoza was a Jew. Why, then, did they excommunicate both? Evidently because neither Jesus nor Spinoza were Jewish, for to be Jewish meant to be narrow minded, bigotted, fanatic to the point of murder. Jesus called their turn when he drove them out of the temple and in John 8:44, when he named them a breed of murderers.

A Messiah, a Liberator, a Savior lives up to his promises and does not resort to violence to impose his ideology upon others. Freedom is the first condition, choice is inviolate, is of the essence.

Today Jews pose as Liberators of the world and insist upon enforcing peace by armed force of a League of Nations that is to do their bidding. That is the Jew for you!

Peace cannot be imposed by armed force. The last war produced Communism in Russia, Fascism in Italy, Nazism in Germany because America entered the war, in the very words of Winston Churchill who blamed the U. S. A. for it.

This war is uniting all the world against the U. S. A. because we are the most prosperous nation and should have set the true example of Liberty by free choice and unfolded intelligence, by understanding and Love of Truth, but intead, we have fallen prey to the fallacy that by arming Japan to enable it to war on China we could dictate to the Asiatics.

Force never produces peace but resentment and rebellion. As long as Jews preach Liberty but mean to dictate to the people of the world by armed force, there will be anti-Semitism because they are traitors to the Torah.

ISSUE—SURVIVAL OF REPUBLIC .... MONTESQUIEU ON TERM OF OFFICE.

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, October 23.—No republic ever died by reason of changing its chief executive. Most republics died, and every one of them did so after keeping its president in office too long.

Montesquieu—one of the greatest men who ever lived—the greatest commentator on the "Spirit of Laws" (the title of his noblest work)—said:

"Constant experience shows us that EVERY MAN invested with power is apt to abuse it, and to carry his authority as far as it will go. . .

"To prevent this abuse, it is necessary from the very nature of things that power should be a check to power."

Montesquieu, the great Frenchman, was born almost exactly 100 years before our Constitution was born, and Alexander Hamilton paid high tribute in his "Federalist Papers" to the power and influence of Montesquieu's "Spirit of Laws" on the Founding Fathers.

On the necessity of changing chief executives frequently this great legal philosopher wrote:

"In all magistracies, the greatness of the power must be compensated by the brevity of the duration. This most legislators have fixed to a year; a longer space would be dangerous, and a shorter would be contrary to the nature of government.

"At Regusa, the chief magistrate of the republic is changed every month, the other officers every week and the governor of the castle every day."

Andrew Jackson favored a single term for the Presidency. If the latter is eligible for re-election, he is inclined to be a demagogue and do things for votes. If he is ineligible for re-election, he will do his best, without trying to cater to any special group for their votes.

In his every speech to Congress, except the last two, President Jackson requested a Constitutional Amendment, restricting the President to ONE TERM. What a pity his grand advice was not taken.

Our neighbors, Mexico and Cuba adopted constitutional amendments, restricting the President to one term only. Each country has changed its war president since we entered the war, and each case to the betterment of the country.

Washington in his noble "Farewell Address" warned against the danger to our country of by the President, especially the legislative, the usurpation of legislative or judicial powers pointing out that we could thereby have a REAL DESPOTISM within the framework of our republican form of government.

For almost twelve years nearly all important bills have originated in the White House, drawn up by the Roosevelt Camarilla, and sent down to the Congress as "must" legislation.

This is usurpation, against which Washington warned us so earnestly.

Although Roosevelt may not himself be an evil and designing man, his oligarchy (including the camarilla, known as the palace guard) has come to include as evil an aggregation of political opportunists, self-seekers and socialistic planners as the Western world has ever seen.

We have reached the point predicted and described by Senator John C. Calhoun in 1835 during the second term of President Jackson. In reading this, please remember that Roosevelt has more than THREE MILLION civilian Federal employees, or perhaps 1,000 times as many as Jackson had.

Here is what Calhoun's committee reported regarding "Patronage" to the U. S. Senate:

"It is easy to see that the certain, direct, and inevitable tendency of this practice is to convert the entire body of those in office into corrupt and supple instruments of power, and to raise up a host of hungry, greedy, and subservient partisans, ready for every service, however base and corrupt.

"Were a premium offered for the best means of extending to the utmost the power of patronage; to destroy the love of country and substitute a spirit of subserviency and man-worship; to encourage vice and discourage virtue; and, in a word, to prepare for the subversion of liberty and the establishment of despotism, no scheme more perfect could be devised." (Senate Doc., 2nd Ses., 23rd Cong., vol. 3, No. 109).

ROOSEVELT A "RULER"

That the Roosevelt followers themselves regard their hero as the real RULER of this country, rather than the people through their Congress, is shown by their constant recitals of what HE has "done" for the people.

If Roosevelt has "done" any of a dozen things claimed for him, he acted as a "ruler" and in subversion to the Constitution.

DEWEY NOT AN ISSUE

Governor Dewey has made a fine record as governor of New York, and, if elected President, will make a great record as our chief executive. Nevertheless, he is NOT the issue. ROOSEVELT IS.

Roosevelt is going before the people for a vote of confidence; and it should be DENIED HIM.

It is argued that because he had "experience" in getting us into this war, after making no effort to keep Euurope at peace, he is thereby the very man to get us out of the war. The argument is its own answer.

He has laws enacted which made complete recovery impossible, except by getting us into war, at the cost of perhaps a million lives and the possible bankruptcy of the nation.

He has violated our laws, both written and unwritten, and set an example that is not good for the youth of our land.

It is time for a change. And if we do not change administrations, it may well prove the end of our republic.

Meet Klansman Truman

WASHINGTON,—Harry S. Truman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, was a member of the Ku Klux Klan in Missouri, according to affidavits sworn to by his fellow citizens in Missouri.

Truman took the Klan oath which stressed the life-long allegiance demanded of those admitted to the hooded organization.

TRUMAN GAVE O. K. TO KLANSMAN IN L.A.

LOS ANGELES,—When Harry S. Truman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, toured Southern California, he received a visit at his hotel room here from Hal Styles, candidate for Congress in the 15th District.

Later it was pointed out to Truman that Styles had been revealed as a former kleagle and exalted cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan, and reporters asked Truman whether he was indorsing Styles, candidacy.

"I know nothing about his Ku Klux Klan or any other connection," Truman replied, adding: "But if he is one of ours, I'm for him."

Some people wanted to know whether Truman was Jewish.

IS TRUMAN JEWISH OR A KLANSMAN ?

PEORIA, Ill.,—Senator Harry S. Truman, Democratic vice presidential candidate, was informed at a press conference "there is a story going the rounds that you were a member of the Ku Klux Klan", and the nominee declared the story was a "lie" that had been "nailed" 22 years ago.

Seen In Passing

In talking with newspaper men later in the day, Truman said the Klan always had fought him in Missouri. He added that at a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons in September, 1921, in St. Louis he worked for pasage of a resolution to expel any lodge member who had joined the Klan.

The Senator asserted he never had attended a Klan meeting, "although I have driven by them on my way to my own campaign meetings while I was fighting the Klan."

"If I had shown up at a meeting," he added, "the Klan would have pulled me apart."

Judges Free to Commit Crimes

WASHINGTON,— Justice David A. Pine dismissed in District Court a suit by Ernest F. Elmhurst, a defendant in the sedition case, for $100,000 damages against Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher, presiding at the mass trial.

The suit was brought on the ground that Elmhurst was seized illegally by a deputy marshal in the courtroom at a noon recess and taken forcibly to Justice Eicher's chambers, where he was required to give secret testimony contrary to his interests.

James J. Laughlin, attorney for Elmhurst, contended the sedition case defendant was deprived of his rights and subjected to personal indignities as serious as if the bailiff and the judge had physically attacked him. Phillip Miller of the Justice Department appeared for the prosecution.

Justice Pine said it was a "well-settled rule of law, that judges were not liable for their judicial acts, and the reason for this was obvious, that judges could be independent and not subject to ordinary legal processes. He added that, in his opinion, the complaint showed Justice Eicher's acts in this instance had been "judicial". Justice Pine gave Elmhurst 25 days to amend the complaint, if he chooses.

and others had been hauling materials to non-union factories outside of New York . . . .

"Then started Dewey's battle with Mr. Roosevelt's Attorney General to get Lepke out of Biddle's hands and into the electric chair at Sing Sing for the murder of Rosen. If Attorney Geneal Francis Biddle insisted on Lepke serving his 14 year term, it could be the equivalent of saving his life; and why should Attorney General Biddle do that for so dangerous a criminal?

" . . . . Governor Dewey made his final formal demand on the Department of Justice for Lepke's surrender. But Attorney General Biddle . . . . . kept Lepke in Federal hands, warm and cozy—and quiet.

"On July 16, 1936, President Roosevelt first suggested the founding of a seperate party here in New York City . . . It would serve as an insurance policy against any kicking over of the traces by the old-time Democratic organization here . . . . the man President Roosevelt selected for the on-the-spot work of weaving our local elements together, was Sidney Hillman . . . and by Sidney Hillman, James A. Farley was first shouldered out of his organizational authority at the White House . . . . The first real breaks between the President and Jim Farley . . . . occurred when President Roosevelt began telling Mr. Farley here in New York to clear things with Sidney Hillman."

Let Dewey finish the job!

Mr. Taylor's biographical series on Hillman gives much more information that connects up many loose ends of the Great Design. The scheme of an international group to make themselves rulers of the world by using as dupes the little street-bred people who nurse their grudges against all individuals more successful than they are. Just who expects to be the all-powerful ruler is not yet clear. Very likely there are many men who cherish a secret ambition to be IT. No doubt there are a number who kid themselves into believing they are supergeniuses who can ride the whirlwind; and each expects to be first World Boss. But there is no new thing under the sun. The supermen always fall to fighting among themselves; just as Hitler turned from the brink of success to attack Russia.

The nationwide publicity that finally forced Attorney General Biddle to surrender Lepke to be executed is too well known to require comment. Also the fact that Lepke died without talking. But the paragraphs quoted do give convincing evidence that Mr. Sidney Hillman has a very personal reason for wanting to keep Thomas E. Dewey out of the White House, and to keep the National Administration in the hands of his friend, patron, or what do YOU think, Mr. Roosevelt.

Will decent people of the South vote to keep such an Administration in power? That is the $64 question. How will YOU vote?

Hitler's Anti-Jewish Ideas Presented to "Sedition" Jury

German Fuehrer Charged That Judaists Were Using the Vehicle of Democracy to Subjugate the World Financially.

WASHINGTON (Special), October 24, 1944,—Over the vehement and tumultuous protests of defense attorneys, most of them court-appointed, Federal Prosecutor Rogge went before the so-called "sedition" jury yesterday and consumed most of the afternoon reading excerpts from Hitler's speeches and articles on German National Socialism, dating as far back as 1919.

Mouths opened and eyebrows were lifted when the tall prosecutor, himself of close German descent, read Hitler's denunciations of world Jewry: He read articles galore, throwing a great light upon the Hitler philosophy.

Some red left-wingers in the court room expressed fears that the Nazi ideas might make the jury and spectators "Anti-Semitic".

The local press almost ignored the Rogge presentations, and entirely omitted the parts referring to the Jewish question.

The documents were exhibits in the number 3,000 class, and pictured the Nazis in Germany as referring to "democracy" as a Jewish invention, which the Judaists cooked up to deceive the people and hide their hidden Jewish hands in manipulating, behind the scences, the economy of the white nations, both financial and political.

Lawrence Dennis, famous author, made more objections than any other attorney, in each case stating his legal reasons for objecting, but Prosecutor Rogge, frequently referring to himself as "the government", objected strenously to allowing Dennis to state his objections. Judge Eicher always sustained the prosecution, as usual.

REFUGEE ON STAND

On the stand yesterday to identify Mr. Rogge's documents was Dr. R. M. W. Kempner, a German refugee of half-Russian Jewish ancestry, who once served in the German ministry of Justice, as a judge, but who was ousted in the Hitler drive.

Again Lawrence Dennis "went to town" today in cross-examining Kempner, who made a self-composed but truculent witness. Kempner wanted to "hit" the defendants as hard a blow as possible, but was compelled to admit that the supposedly official papers on exhibit only appeared to be authentic, and that they bore no names, from or to any person or persons, and no dates. The German claimed the documents were authentic, but could point out no identifying marks or even phrases to sustain his viewpoint.

All defense lawyers condemned such exhibits as pure propaganda for the purpose of confusing the jury and injuring the defendants. They branded them as incompetent, by reason of lack of identification.

Rogge having claimed enough evidence in it to convict some of the defendants, Dennis and Attorney Lindas (for Viereck) offered to submit the case to the jury, as is, without introducing a single defense witness; but Rogge refused.

DRASTIC UNION CURB PROPOSED

SACRAMENTO,—Drastic new regulation of labor unions was proposed in a legislative initiative measure pronounced ready for circulation for signatures of voters.

Sponsored by three Los Angeles women, the measure would require registration of labor organizers, provide for public financial and statistical reports from unions, and would prohibit closed shop contracts.

The attorney general's office which issued a title for the proposition, said it is sponsored by Mrs. Gladys Mean Selvin, Mrs. Ona Carroll Remy and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Sampson.

Qualification is to be attempted under a little-used legislative process. If 111,727 valid signatures of voters are gained in support of the measure by Dec. 29, the 1945 legislature must either pass or reject it within 40 days of its meeting Jan. 8.

If approved by the legislature, the measure would become law and if rejected it goes on the next election ballot.

AGAINST JEWISH DICTATORSHIP

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

More and more it becomes evident that our New Deal racketeers are determined to junk our Constitution and all rights herein granted to the law-abiding citizen.

The Frankfurters, Rosenmans, Baruchs and Hillmans, as being the most instrumental figures in transforming USA into a Jewish dominion Soviet style, consider it their foremost tribal duty to erase any Gentile critics who might bring the fact to the attention of the general public about the process of bringing this country's 126 million Gentiles gradually & by stealth under Kike regimentation. The task of accomplishing this not only lies in the hands of so-called Communists, Socialists and 'Democrats', but at the present stage steps are being taken to get hold of alleged 'Republican' officials with a view of letting them carry out Jewish wishes and requests in an identical manner as has hitherto been adhered to by the aforementioned Leftists from the Democrats down. Your 'official' approach by Sen. Jack Tenney appears to be just another confirmation of Jewry's policy which is being carried out with view to crushing Jewish critics via press and speech.

While in Washington some thirty men and women are being subjected to an incredible phony court procedure for the alleged purpose of trying them for having 'undermined the morale of the Armed Forces', but in reality for having had the courage of pointing publicly to Jewry's nation-wide endeavor of taking over this country's three administrative branches by means of their press and radio control, Jewry appears to have found other stooges to prosecute those not as yet indicted.

DEWEY COMMUNIST, DEMOCRAT DECLARES

DENVER,— Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, who consistenly has attacked the Communist faction in his campaign talks, is himself a "Communist", in the opinion of Philip Hornbein, a Colorado Democrat leader.

In a radio address, Hornbein accused the Republican presidential nominee of "Communistic" leanings because he has approved social security, the wage and hour law, insurance on bank accounts and all other new deal measures, which have been tagged "Communistic".

"Gov. Dewey is for the principles of the new deal, at least so he says," said Hornbein, "but he is against the new deal itself. This is akin to the philosophy of the atheist. He believes in creation, but not in the creator."

WHAT THE SIGNS PORTEND

Readers of THE BROOM must bear in mind that none of the Republican candidates dared advertise in our paper neither did the Republican campaign committee. In days to come many of them will claim that they were "with us" in this critical season when we dared stand up openly for the principles represented by this constitutional Republic and the ideal of a free commonwealth where the individual citizen is sovereign and not to be restrained except in naturally criminal activities, but not arbitrarily by act of the legislatures, or even by the people, because the principle of truth and right guides the nation and its government and not the tyranny of the ignorant mass as expressed in democracy.

Of all people, this writer stands for individual liberty, in fact as well as in principle, and restraint is to be applied only against crimes evident in the nature of life itself, not man-made crimes that have no relation to the truth. And because of this daring on our part, naturally, we are standing out above the mob and because politicians play down to the mob, are slaves of the vicious ignorance of the mass, they betray their country, the Creator's purpose of life, betray the future of their children to garner in some dubious votes.

For this reason the next two generations will pay a terrific price in lives and blood.

WHAT OF THE DEAD ?

CHICAGO,—In President Roosevelt's address of Aug. 12, I read with dismay these proud, freighted words: "All of the battleships and smaller craft which were sunk or damaged in the attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, have been raised with the exception of the Arizona."

How glibly our commander in chief speaks of ships. How eloquent his silence respecting personnel. What of the brave men who died at Pearl Harbor because President Roosevelt failed in his task to be ready? What of our dead in the ugly South Pacific seas? These men gave their lives because we arived with too little, too late, sometimes with weapons too obsolete to do the job there was to do. Has human life no value at all? —H. F. P.

INTEREST ON NATIONAL DEBT HITS 4 BILLION DOLLARS YEAR

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—It now costs more than 4 billion dollars annually to pay the interest on the national debt. The treasury's monthly bulletin placed the public debt at the end of August at 209 billion 674 million dollars and the annual interest charge at 4 billion 33 millions. This is at an annual rate of interest of 1.923 per cent.

WE LOSE WHEN WE WIN

CHICAGO,— Last Saturday I talked with two men, one from Texas and one from Kansas, now on leave after 27 months in the South Pacific. They were part of 10 per cent remaining of their original outfit and they frankly stated they did not know what they fought for when I see news photos of flags of the liberat- possession of the islands they captured from the Japs. It is hard for these boys to understand why their lives are spent to recover them. And when I see news photo of the flags of the liberators flown at Antwerp with the American flag on the mast below the British flag, I am concerned with who shall be the commander in chief of our American forces. NEW YORK,— Col. Robert R. Said Col. McCormick: "The word 'isolationist' is the word that a man controlled by foreign influences uses for 'patriot'."

Economic Equity

By Chas. H. Ingersoll
(THE ORIGINAL $ WATCH MAKER)

NEW YORK, — One of Communisms Greatest Benefactions from Fellow-Travelers is from Georgists who blindly follow an inadvertent declaration in George's greatest book that "we must make land common property". The tragedy being that in three-quarters of a century his movement has not developed intelligent interpretation for teaching.

Chas. H. Ingersoll

George himself saw the weakness of this statement and undertook to explain it as not meaning socializing land, but its income or rent. But the 'key' got adrift and so for three generations this communistic gem has been peddled until the popular mind is well saturated with the idea that GEORGEISM is COMMUNISM!

In appraising this tragedy don't overlook the fact that here are several real similarities between the two ISMS. They are co-PIONEERS in the 'discovery' of (1) poverty as a social disease (2) that it stems from 'plenty' (3) that it is curable (4) that its cure is a process of socializing.

Against these 4 similarities the single difference must be held clear to reverse such destructive confusion as now prevails.

We propose all wealth and property to be private and individual and all social values to be collective: while they make no distinction and claim ALL for society, i.e. ours is to socialize what belongs to society. Theirs to socialize that and everything else!

The present New Deal Position in having reached a one-fifth ownership of our earth: and especially associating it making a total of half of our 3,000,000 square miles, brings us to a parting of the ways in (A) New Deal attitude toward sound economics: and (B) our own position in teaching of same.

As to A. it is presumed that it's position is advised from its collectivist or Marxist sources and will not be altered. By alteration I mean a declaration of policy of securing and holding all lands perpetually FOR RENTAL vs speculation and sale.

As to B, I assume that all organizations and movements interested in advancing scientific economics will adopt this declaration. There may be a strong communistic element within our economic circle as there are in all the fields that make up our society.

That is what collectivism is noted for—reaching into every place where discontent has set in and ingratiating its plausible cure, crowding out reason and sense. The element in every constructive movement that is impatient of orderly method is often dominant.

TRAINING WOMEN IN POLITICS AND ECONOMICS

'WE THE MOTHERS' are organized and publish a neat paper at 537 Dearborn Street, Chicago, 'Women's Voice', of which Mrs. Lyrl C. Van Hyning is the editor. Peace now is its first object and peace all the while is its whole aim. Its leader is another Jannette Rankin the only one of 500 in Congress who voted 'NO' when war was declared.

Though Mrs. Van Hyning is a 'Georgist Single Taxer' she has been repudiated by the Henry George organizations of both New York and Chicago. Also she is smeared in the (Sat. Evening) 'Post' as ISOLATIONIST by help of Elizabeth Dilling, authority on communism and indicted seditionist, because she is forsooth a Georgist.

'Was George a Communist?' asks the bewildered onlooker—an oft-asked question by the way, needing a clean-cut answer. There are only two schools of economics, individual and social. Their current sponsors are Henry George and Karl Marx. The George School demands allocation of wealth exactly as earned (close to 50-50) by the individual and society: while Marx claims all for society. George is opposite to Marx.

The TWIN CONFUSION is on the isolationist smear: all the Jew-baiters such as Dilling, violent anti-New Dealers and the war-opposers such as Fish and 'Lindy' were TAGGED isolationist when that title had been earned and worn by the GOP system of Protective Tariff for the last 100 years. 'Isolation' is 100% SMEAR.

This mix-up though, showing 'Reformers' are as susceptible of utter confusion as stand-patters, contains a trace of cause and effect, as do the communist leanings of the 'Commonwealth' of San Francisco.

There are two causes for both (a) the popular attribution of communism to George, the ONLY individualist who can uphold its theory: and (b) defense of unionist and communist, and failure to attack them, by loyal Georgists.

These causes are (1) communism and Georgeism or Sound Economics AGREE as to demanding for society (or the community) all socially-created values: and also as to 'a priori' points leading to this demand (2) the ice-cold scientific position of economics is wanting in political and emotional appeal such as 'union-communism' has for 27 million New Dealers and nearly as many more Willkie—Dewey, etc.

In other words to get the 100% right position of economists of social values ONLY for social needs of society, the collectivists have only half the distance to travel. So while many tests applied to such leaders as Sinclair, Thomas, Laidler, Browder, et al, all have failed to narrow this breach, some day the line of least resistance must bring the Marxist to the Georgeist and the PERFECT DEMOCRACY. Some of the appeasement here referred to may hasten this joyful day. BUT! It should be artfully done.

Dr. Rumely Refuses to Give Names; Pleads Not Guilty

WASHINGTON,—Dr. Edward A. Rumely, executive secretary of the Committee on Constitutional Government, pleaded not guilty in District Court to an indictment charging he unlawfully failed to turn over records of his committee's financial backers to the House Campaign Expenditures Committee.

In a statement issued after his arraignment before Justice James M. Proctor, Dr. Rumely declared the Committee for Constitutional Government "has nothing to hide" and had turned over to the House investigators a complete record of its receipts, except for the names and addresses of individual contributors.

Was Founded by Gannett

The failure to supply the requested list of contributors resulted in a citation by the House committee for contempt, which led to the indictment.

The Committee for Constitutional Government was founded in 1937 by Frank E. Gannett, publisher of a chain of newspapers in New York State.

In his statement, Dr. Rumely said his refusal to disclose the names asked by the House committee represented the decision of a board of trustees, which aimed "to uphold our constitutional rights" and "to set a precedent that will safeguard the rights of citizens and of all other organizations in the future against similar violations by Federal officials and misled legislative committees."

Sees "Usurpation of Powers."

"If the chairman of a congressional committee," Dr. Rumely's statement continued, "can pry into private records and make public such fragments of them as he personnally chooses, if he can misuse, unchallenged, the prestige of Congress to spread through the press or radio a distorted or damaging picture of any organization, then we are confronted with a personal usurpation of power.

"If the law gives even a shadow of protection to such usurpations, we should know it. Then steps can be taken ultimately to correct it. The first step is to obtain adjudication by the courts. This is the purpose of the stand I have taken on behalf of the Committee for Constitutional Government."

Lucifer's "Chosen People"

On Rosh Hashonah, the Jewish New Year, Alvin Wilder, nationally known radio commentator, addressed the members of the Hollywood Synagogue on the subject of anti-Semitism, the Torah (Jewish Law) and FDR as the second Moses of Zionism thru the New Deal. His speech was published in the form of highlight excerpts in The Jewish Voice, of Los Angeles, and was reprinted in The Broom last week.

It's the most marvelous speech which explains why 95% of the Jews support the New Deal and the destruction of our Constitution and Republic.

Mind you, the speech was made in a synagogue during religious service. Roosevelt was depicted as the Jewish Messaiah, next to Moses and the reason for anti-Semitism was stated as being a method by which uneducated Christians can be kept in subjection by world exploiters, to which end rich and evil Jews contributed to Hitler's financial needs.

Wilder also explained that Jews are hated and persecuted because they are the ones who bring Freedom and Democracy to the world, not because they are treacherous and cruel as the "anti-Semites" charge.

Wilder advised Jews to support FDR as a religious duty in working for Zionism and that peace will be enforced by military measures the world over under FDR's plan. This, then, explains why Jews have been chased out of every country on earth: they advocate "peace" and "Zionism" by armed force.

Armed force is needed only to suppress the freedom of nations, not to give them freedom. The old problem of Violence is up again.

Jesus taught that submission to the Will of Our Father, voluntary espousing of the purpose of the Divine Elohims, and collaboration with Divine Providence and Order produces the Rule of God on Earth, Theocracy, true Zionism, which alone brings the Millenium.

The Jews, on the other hand, rejected this doctrine and claimed that democracy, mob-rule by armed force, rule by votes of the mob backed by armies, IS ZIONISM to give the Jews possession of Palestine whence their rule will extend over the whole planet as the "Chosen People of God".

Jesus taught that God is Love and makes no favorites, that each individual reaps what he sows and God cannot be mocked. That Love is more powerful than armed force because the Spirit of Love reveals the Intelligence that guides one to do justice to all.

This difference between the Jewish doctrine of Zionism, overlordship of the Jews by force and violence, and the Christ doctrine of individual elevation to divine collaboration by searching out the Rule of God and its Righteousness first, is the difference between Hell on Earth and the Millenium.

Because Jews have always promised, again and again and again, all freedoms to all peoples, but wound up in suppressing the individualities of their dupes by imposing the super-dictatorship of Jewish concepts as against the Christ concept, that Jews have proven themselves to be the "Chosen People" of Lucifer and have received the treatment which natural reaction to their black magic brings. Alice A. Bailey and the Board of the Mother Church in Boston, all of them belong to that class which preaches Freedom but practice armed force.

Love needs no armed force to evoke love. Lovers cannot be parted by armed force and such is the secret of paradise on earth, that you love God with all your heart and all your might and your neighbor as yourself.

WHO ARE NAZIS ?

Those who accuse our editor of being a Fascist or Nazi don't know their vocabulary.

C. Leon de Aryan is a sovereign Christian, individualist who bows his head to no man because he recognizes only one Master above him, the Lord, Our Father.

By seeking out His Rule of Life de Aryan finds his place and fills it even at the risk of his life and all earthly possessions. Christ teaches that as each seeks out the Rule of God then he finds his own right place in Life and all, together, then, harmonize more perefctly than any government by force could achieve. This divine order is the Millenium.

In the U. S. A. we have two national socialist leaders: Norman Thomas and Howard Scott. Our editor sympathizes with the ideologies of neither.

REFUSAL TO IDENTIFY CO-AUTHORS IN BLAST AT NAZIS IS UPHELD

WASHINGTON,— Dr. Robert M. W. Kempner, former German judge and a prosecution witness at the sedition trial, was upheld by the court when he asked not to be required to disclose the names of those who collaborated with him in 1930 on a report condemning the Nazi party as treasonable to the existing government of Germany.

"They are still in Germany," the witness said, "and they will be killed if I talk."

Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher did not require Dr. Kempner to reveal the names, saying the information was "immaterial to any issue in this case".

The information had been demanded by Lawrence Dennis, a defendant acting as his own attorney, who was cross-examining the witness.

There were concerted protests from the defense tables.

Dr. Kempner had identified a copy of the report which he and others made, he said, to the Prussian Ministry of the Interior after a secret investigation of the National Socialist German Workers (Nazi party), which did not come into power until three years later. The report assailed Hitler's group as a "treasonable organization," which intended to do away with the Weimar Republic.

Dr. Kempner, a former criminal court judge in Berlin, is a refugee in this country.

SACRAMENTO,— The California State Grange has gone on record as opposing compulsory military training in time of peace. It also has condemned "the liquor evil as Public Enemy No. 1" and adopted a series of resolutions favoring public power development and distribution.

The Grange, by formal resolution, expressed the opinion that peacetime military training would result in "a growth of militarism and the disruption of education, occupation and home influence."

Dry Aid Pledged

The anti-liquor resolution declared that "no nation can long remain strong and virile when large numbers of its citizens are addicted to strong drink" and pledged Grange support to "any state or federal effort to correct the situation."

Letter of Pontius Pilate to Caesar

The history of Christ's three years' ministry, trial, death, burial and resurrection, by Pontius Pilate, copied April 7th, 1893, from original scroll in Greek, now in the Vatican Library at Rome.

Editor's Note: We have been repeatedly asked for more copies containing this letter, so that we are compelled to reprint it to supply the demand.

This remarkable record is indeed very interesting, and it seems upon good authority that there are thousands of similar ones at Rome and Constantinople bearing upon a variety of subjects. Some of them are in Hebrew, some in Greek and others in Latin, etc. Many of them have never been translated and given to the world at large.

The most interesting collection of these records was published many years ago in book form under the title of "The Archko Volume," but we are sorry to say that this book is now out of print.

Editor, The Broom:

For your information the Archko Volume containing the Letter of Pontius Pilate to Caesar has been reprinted by the Holmes Book Store, 814 West Sixth Street, in Los Angeles, for 50 cents per copy. It contains, as you know, several other very interesting articles. —H. W.

To Tiberius Caesar, Emperor of Rome, Noble Sovereign, Greeting:—

(Conclusion)

I returned to the Pretorium, sad and pensive. On ascending the stairs, the steps of which were still stained with the blood of the Nazarene, I perceived an old man in a supplicant posture, and behind him several Romans in tears. He threw himself at my feet and wept most bitterly. It was painful to see an old man weep, and as my heart was already overcharged with grief, we, though strangers, wept together; and, in truth it seems as if the tears lay very shallow that day with many whom I perceived in the vast concourse of people. I never saw such a division of feeling, both on the extreme. Those who betrayed him and sold him; those who testified against him; those who cried, "Crucify him! Crucify him! We will have his blood," all slunk off like cowardly curs and washed their teeth in vinegar. As I am told that Jesus taught a resurrection and a separation after death, if such should be the fact, I am sure it commenced in this vast crowd.

"Father," said I to him, after gaining control of my feelings, "who are you and what is your request?" "I am Joseph of Arimathea," replied he, and am come to beg of you upon my knees the permission to bury Jesus of Nazareth." "Your prayer is granted," said I to him, and at the same time ordered Manlius to take some soldiers with him to superintend the interment, lest it be profaned.

A few days afterward the sepulchre was found empty. His disciples published all over the country that Jesus had risen from the dead, as he had foretold. This last report created more excitement than the first. As to the truth I cannot say for certain, but I have made some investigation in the matter, so you can examine for yourself and see if I am at fault, as Herod represents me.

Joseph buried Jesus in his own tomb; whether he contemplated his resurrection or calculated to cut him another I cannot tell. The next day after he was buried one of the priests came to the Pretorium saying they were apprehensive that his disciples intended to steal the body of Jesus and hide it and then make it appear that he had risen from the dead, as he had foretold, and of which they were perfectly convinced. I sent him to the captain of the Royal Guard, Malcus, to tell him to take the Jewish soldiers and place as many around the sepulchre as were needed. Then if anything should happen they could blame themselves and not the Romans. When the great excitement arose about the sepulchre being found empty I felt a deeper solicitude than ever. I sent for Malcus, who told me he had placed his lieutenant, Ben Isham, with 100 soldiers around the sepulchre. He told me that Isham and the soldiers were very much alarmed at what occured there that morning. I sent for this man Isham, who related to me as near as I can remember the following circumstances: He said that the beginning of the fourth watch they saw a soft and beautiful light over the sepulchre. He at first thought that the women had come to embalm the body of Jesus, as was their custom; but he could not see how they could have gotten through the guards.

While these reflections were passing through his mind, behold the whole place was lighted up, and there seemed to be crowds of the dead in their grave cloths. All seemed to be shouting and filled with ecstasy, while all around and about was the most beautiful music he had ever heard, and the place seemed to be full of voices praising God. At this time there seemed to be a reeling and swinging of the earth, so that he turned so sick and faint that he could not stand on his feet. He said the earth seemed to swing from under him and his senses left him so that he knew not what did occur.

I asked him what position he was in when he came to himself. He said he was lying on the ground with his face down. I asked if he could not have been mistaken as to the light. Was it not the day that was coming in the East? He said at first he thought of that, but at a stone's cast it was exceeding dark and then he remembered it was too early for day.

I asked him if his dizziness might not have come from being awakened and sitting up too suddenly, as it sometimes has that effect. He said he was not and had not been asleep all night, as the penalty was death for him to sleep on duty. He said he had some of the soldiers asleep at the time. Some were asleep then. I asked him how long the scene lasted; he said he did not know, but thought nearly one hour. Then I asked him if he went to the sepulchre after he came to himself? He said no, because he was afraid; that just as soon as relief came they all went to their quarters.

I asked him if he had been interrogated by the priests. He said he had. They wanted him to say it was an earthquake, and to say they were all asleep, and offered him money to tell them that the disciples came and stole him. But he saw no disciples. He did not know that the body was gone until he was told so. I asked him the private opinion of the priests he had conversed with. He said some of them thought Jesus was no man; that he was not a human being; that he was the son of Mary; that he was not the same that was said to have been born of the Virgin in Bethlehem; that the same person had been on earth before with Abraham and Lot, and at many other times and places.

It seems to me if the Jewish theory be true these conclusions would be correct; for it would be in accord with this man's life, as I know of and testified by his friends and foes, for the elements were no more in his hands than the clay in the hands of the potter. He could convert water into wine. He could change death into life, disease into health; he could calm the seas, still the storms, call up a fish with a piece of silver coin in its mouth.

And now I say if he could do all these things which he did, and many more, as the Jews all testify, and it was doing these things that created their enmity against him—He was not charged with criminal offense, nor was he charged with violating any law, nor of wronging any individual in person—I am almost ready to say as did Manlius at the cross, "Truly this was the Son of God."

Now Noble Sovereign, this is as near the facts in the case as I can arrive at, and I have taken this pains to make the statement more full so that you may judge of my conduct upon the whole, as I hear that Antipater has said many hard things of me in this matter.

With promise of faithfulness and good wishes to my noble sovereign, I am,

Your Most Obedient Servant,
PONTIUS PILATE.

'Wilson', A Heinous Lie

(From THE LEADER, San Francisco)

"It is the common fate of the indolent to see their rights become a prey to the active. The condition on which God has given liberty to man is eternal vigilance; which condition if he breaks, servitude at once the consequence of his crime and the punishment of his guilt."

(Conclusion)

Zanuck's Colonelcy Insult to Army

Was it for an attempt to revive his memory in a false light and to rehabilitate his shattered reputation that Darrell Zanuck, taking "polls" of soldiers in North Africa, was rewarded with a commission in the U. S. Army?

The Leader protests against such an insult to our army and such an offense to the men who are winning their commissions the hard way, at peril of life and limb, on a hundred fronts.

We sincerely hope that the film Zanuck fabricated will go the way of "Mission to Moscow", a monumental flop from a box-office standpoint, as in every other sense, and far more offensive because of its obvious intent to deceive the voters into a belief that the League of Nations was a good thing for the United States and that Wilson, as its spokesman, was a hero and a patriot.

Napeoleon's cynical saying that "history is a lie agreed upon" has received its strongest verification from the series of "historical" films put out by the group of intellectual bums who run the industry, but the Zanuck film transcends the rest in its onslaughts on fact. It is hard to shame his kind, but a financial rebuke is the sort he would understand thoroughly.

Even at that, we are by no means certain that the box-office losses will not be compensated for by the moneyed internationalists who stand to make immense sums by the hoodwinking of the American people this fall.

Wilson's Hatred of the Irish.

As a most significant sidelight on Wilson's character, it should not be amiss to instance his aversion for the Irish. Although indebted to those of the race outside the Solid South for his nomination and election in 1912, he hated them with all the viciousness of an exceptionally venomous nature.

In the words of an able Irishman who achieved the rank of general in World War I, he not only hated an Irishman, but so unerring was his instinct in pursuit of one that he could "smell" him out. In other words, no accident of name or other racial indication could deceive him, and an Irishman named Willoughby was no more immune to his spite than one named Murphy.

His aversion for the Irish was early manifested, and he seized upon an unusual occasion for displaying it. It was during the early part of his first administration thhat he was invited tc make the main address at a Barry Day celebration. He accepted the invitation and showed his first administration that he was invited to smear of any and all Irish-Americans who retained any love for the old land. He roundly denounced any Irishman who, coming to America left "part of himself" behind him. This from a half-breed English Anglomaniac was a characteristic bit of Wilsonian inconsistency and effrontery.

Casement's Blood at Wilson's Door

Throughout his two administrations he continued to show this hatred. Our neutrality as regarded Germany almost from the very outset of World War I was a joke. For long before we went to war our secret service worked hand-in-glove with a swarm of British agents in the United States. In March, 1916 a United States secret service operative filched from German Dr. Albert on a New York City street car a brief case which contained among other documents an account of the proposed dispatch from Germany to Ireland of a vessel with 20,000 stand of arms.

This news was cabled at once to London. And at Wilson's door may be laid the murder of Roger Casement, hanged as a "traitor" by the resuscitation of an obsolete statute, enacted centuries before by a Pate parliament, and in all justice not bindng upon any Irishman who wished to serve his own land.

"Tell Them to Go to Hell!"

When a delegation of friends of Ireland sought an audience before his departure for France to take part in the so-called "peace conference," he refused to hear them as long as Judge Daniel Cohalan remained as one of the delegation. If he hoped thereby to frustrate their intention, he was foiled. Judge Cohalan was big enough to withdraw of his own volition. Wilson was forced to listen to their plea for Ireland, but, as subsequent events revealed, their plea fell on deaf ears.

But he had achieved one object grateful to his shriveled soul. He had smeared Cohalan, whom he had hated ever since the convention of 1912, when, largely through the Judge's influence, the New York delegation to the Democratic national convention stood rock-like behind Champ Clark and against Wilson.

In Paris he isolated himself from any approach by the Irish delegates to the peace conference, using Herbert Hoover as a buffer to keep them off. Of course, they never saw the conference table.

And his last disservice to the most deserving of all small nations, for whose cause he had expressed such solicitude, was the most damaging of all. When Lloyd George asked his advice as to what to do with the Irish delegates, he snapped out. "Tell them to go to hell."

Parentage of Woodrow Wilson

His own father was Irish-born, a Protestant clergyman to be sure, and from Ulster. But, as this writer happens to be informed, there were Ulster-born Presbyterian preachers who came to this country not long after Wilson's father who were not only proud of their Irish nationality, but of their country's history, and who at the time of the Fenian uprising in the mid-60's took pleasure in relating to their American parishioners the story of the Fenians of old and dwelling upon what grand men they were.

Wilson's father was evidently of a different type. He was one of the rare few who fall within the scope of Walter Scott's denunciation, "breathes there a man with a soul so dead?" He was that most abandoned of mortals, a man without a country.

Wilson's English-born mother was of a different type. She evidently succeded in inoculating her pet not only with a slavish love of all things English but with a venomous hatred for the land whence his own father sprang.

Darrell Zanuck Prince of Dunces.

There have been, and undoubtedly are, highly intelligent, humane, broadminded English who did not and do not share this blind hatred of the victim country. Evidently there was neither high intelligence, humanity or broadmindedness in Wilson's mother. Even the fact of her husband's nativity did not stay her devastating hatred.

And it all resolves itself into the simple question, What could you expect of the offspring of a viper and a worm?

What, indeed?

Were Wilson accorded the justice that is meted out to the sort of criminal unfended by extraordinary safeguards, he would have been hanged for mass murder, shot for treason, or imprisoned for life for robbery—robbery of the nation's treasury to subsidize England and to bribe foreign nations for his own aggrandizement—and, like that lesser scoundrel, Titus Oats, pilloried in infamy for the execration of all humanity through all the generations.

It was a more merciful silence that permitted his remains to go to the grave without a word about his worse than misspent life, and his dishonored memory to rest throughout these long years without the verbal damnation it had so richly merited.

But fools rush in where angels fear to tread, and we shall never lack a fool as long as we have a Zanuck.

Dear Kosti:

Your Oct. 16th Broom was so good that I let them all get away from me. Will you please send me two more.

The woman who publishes this enclosed Parkside Press told me this afternoon that she had many back kicks from this expose even to a threat on her life. Isn't that the Jew for you? Poulson is advertising in big street boards that he is opposed by the CIO Political Action Committee. He sent all of his district voters the Costello speech about the Communist defeat of himself.

Be sure to note the back slap at Senator Langer on the last page of the Messenger. Am sending one to him. Also sent him your last Broom.

Take good care of yourself. Love,—H.

SON OF EARL TO SERVE YEAR IN PRISON FOR DISOBEYING COMMAND

LONDON,— Captain the Honorable William Douglas Home, third son of the Earl of Home, has been cashiered from the British army and sentenced to serve one year in prison.

A field court-martial, sitting at Ghent, found the 32-year-old armored force captain guilty of disobeying a lawful command from a superior officer to act as liaison officer in the battle for Le Havre.

He announced that it was "not cricket" to shoot German soldiers who refused to fight while not accepting "unconditional" surrender terms.

12 Propositions on California Ballot

Since we have readers in every county in California and the last issue on Monday, 6th, before the Nov. 7th election would get too late to them, we are complying with requests made in previous election years by presenting our views now on the 12 propositions to be voted on.

On the political side, for San Diego county, we support James Abbey for Congress, Fred Houser for U. S. Senate, Dewey-Bricker slate of presidential electors and Charles W. Stream for the state assembly. This is the Republican ticket in our county.

As to the propositions we are reminded of what Jesus said: "I have not come to send peace into the world but a sword", for by following principle one parts company with one's friends and relatives who have selfish gains in view. Bear this in mind: Good government can be had only by impartial principle that cuts both ways, like a sword, it cuts out all special privilege. Naturally, we don't have good government because everybody wants exceptions and favoritism. But as the editor of the BROOM, which sweeps impartially to tear away the veil of illusions and falsehood, we shall point out why, for the sake of true government, one has to turn down most of the 12 propositions.

1.—Veterans Bond Act of 1943. This act provides for a bond issue of 30 million dollars to be used by the Veterans' Welfare Board in assisting California war veterans to acquire farms and homes. Vote NO.

If the veterans are entitled to special privileges so are the police, the firemen, the doctors wo run to calls day and night, so are all people engaged in hazardous occupations. Special privilege is out or else good government is out.

Besides, why bond issues to pay interest? Why not print money and save the interest, or issue state bonds, non-interest bearing, to be redeemed out of taxes. Saves the veterans money too. But that is a secondary issue.

> "No person, because he wore a uniform, must thereafter be placed in a special class of beneficiaries over and above all other citizens. The fact of wearing a uniform does not mean that he can demand and receive from his government a benefit which no other citizen receives."—President Roosevelt, Oct. 2, 1933.

2.—Taxation, Veterans Exemption. Vote 'NO.'

There is only one honest way of raising, or better said, collecting revenue for government and this is quid pro quo. The government gives service as a public utility, then collect the rent of the service as the telephone company collects the rent of the service, or the water, gas and light company collects for the metered service it gives. What is the "meter" by which government service is measured? LAND VALUES. Location values where more public service is available is the right meter of how much public service is delivered at that location. Let the Public Corporation, the government, collect as promptly and as accurately as the private corporations collect for the full value of their services delivered at your address. ALL OTHER impositions are holdups and racketeering, such as sales taxes, taxes on improvements, excise taxes, income taxes, social security taxes, inheritance taxes, etc. These added taxes destroy individual initiative and take in the government as a silent partner and cut-in on private deals.

The telephone company does not get a cut-in on the business you do over the telephone. It's none of their business how successful you are in making a deal by phone. They are entitled only to their regular toll for the material service they give you. Treat the Public Corporation, the government, in exactly the same way. Your ability to produce a large income is none of the government's business.

Hence, eliminating taxes on personal property and improvements, if veterans asked for that only, we would say vote YES. But when it comes to shirking taxes for service delivered in exchange for the guarantee of the land title, that is robbing the government and is a special privilege inimical to true government. Therefore vote 'NO' on No. 2.

3. —Constitutional Officers. Compensation Authorizes Legislature to fix compensation for certain state officials. Not less than $5,000 yearly. Vote 'YES'.

4.—Taxation Exemptoin of religious, hospital and charitable organizations. Vote 'NO'.

"Give Caesar what is Caesar's and God what is God's!" Those religious organizations that try to cheat Caesar out of his dues are not religious in the true sense but a bunch of Pharisees. Beware of their leaven! Hospitals are in the same category. Once we have impartial government we shall need no charity. It's bad management of our government that creates and maintains poverty. Give God what is God's and Caesar what is Caesar's and the miracle of proper relationship, spiritually and economically is here. We will not improve conditions by robbing Peter to pay Paul, just because Paul goes about sob-sistering how 'holy' he be.

5.—Reinstatement of Public Officers and Employees after military service. Vote 'YES'. Since the government called them, naturally, the government owes them this consideration according to their fitness for public service henceforth.

6.—Legislative sessions, budget. Provides for annual sessions of Legislative and annual budgeting, instead of bi-annual.

It's tweedledee vs. tweedledum. No recommendation.

7.—Legislature. Expenses of Members. Provides that members of the legislature shall receive their expenses necessarily incurred in attending legislative sessions. Vote 'YES'.

8.—Validating Tax Deeds by constitutional ammendment. Vote 'NO'.

This is not a subject that belongs into the constitution.

9.—Funds for elementary schools. Vote 'NO'. They are getting too much money now for the stupid education they give that produce wars every 25 years and no remedy. Our public schools are the root of Communism. Compulsory education is like compulsory religion, shoving down the political brand of education that benefits the exploiters of human gullibility is ruining mankind.

10.—Compensation of Officers, increase during term. Vote 'NO'.

Since No. 3 is going to give the legislature power to adjust the salaries of public officers for the highest offices, fixed by the constituution at present, it is not necessary to readjust other salaries during the war since the respective officials knew there was a war on when they ran for that office at the specific salary.

11.—Retirement Payments, gross income tax. Vote 'NO'.

This is the most composite absurdity of hodge podge jumbling in government. It is plainly senile, not even infantile. It proposes to pay every man and woman, over 60 years of age, $60 a month by taxing everybody else in the most vicious type of taxation, after prohibiting the beneficiaries from engaging in gainful occupation. Such a criminal idea of subsidizing parasites could have originated only in unbalanced minds.

It is an entirely different matter to pay out charity from state funds to destitute people as against paying a premium on idleness upon the supposition that by such procedure prosperity is created. One could excuse a request that under existing conditions the old age pension for destitute people be raised from $50 to $60 per month in California, but to pay that money to all and sundry is plain Communism with a vengeance.

12.—Right of Employment. Vote 'YES'.

It declares the right of every worker to join or not to join a labor union, according to his personal choice, not as a matter of necessity to hold a job. Since the economic situation cannot be adjusted by labor unions as long as we don't have good government, giving a union special privileges makes bad matters worse.

Banta Convicted of 'Frame Up'

CHARGED WITH TRYING TO "FRAME" "UNDER COVER" AUTHOR—MISDEAMEANOR PENALTY CARRIES UP TO $500 FINE AND ONE YEAR JAIL

NEW YORK, October 23—Edwin P. Banta, 73, former investigator against Communism and other subversive forces, was found "guilty" today of conspiracy to "frame" Arthur Derounian, supposed author of the book "Under Cover", on a rape charge.

Banta was charged and tried in special sessions court on the misdemeanor accusation of having conspired with Miss June Kelly, a former waitress, of 327 West 56th St., to bring a false charge of rape against the author of the notorious book, who wrote under the pen name of John Roy Carlson.

Miss Kelly gave Banta an affidavit that Carlson-Derounian attempted to rape her, and later recanted. She claimed on the stand that Banta's avowed object was to destroy Derounian as a witness in the Washington mass "sedition" trial, and he induced her to make the false charge.

Banta denied her charges flatly, contended that she made the complaint against the Armenian-Greek voluntarily, and he summoned many prominent Jews in New York in the effort to establish that this was a persecution trial of himself, but much of this evidence was ruled out as irrelevant.

The trial started on Tuesday the 17th and ended on Monday, the 23rd. Banta was allowed to give bail of $1500, and he will appear for sentencing on the 9th of November. He may appeal.

Banta's alleged offense is a misdemeanor, in a class with expectorating on the floor of a subway car, the maximum penalty of which is a fine of $500 and|or one year in jail; but he could be let off with a minimum of money and time, or sentence could be suspended.

Banta claims to have some interesting information regarding Sidney Hillman's power in the New Deal's attempt to perpetuate Roosevelt in office.

MASS SEDITION TRIAL FIGURE COLLAPSES

WASHINGTON,— George Sylvester Viereck, one of the 26 defendants in the mass sedition trial, collapsed in a courtroom wash room.

Viereck was unconscious when carried to the U. S. Marshal's office, where physicians atempted to revive him. Already serving a sentence for not properly registering as a foreign agent, Viereck for years has been a well-known writer.

Prosecutor O. John Rogge charged the 26 defendants had planned to use Henry Ford, Charles A. Lindbergh, Sen. Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mont.) and Maj. Gen. George van Horn Moseley to "recreate Hitler's pattern of revolution" in the United States.

FOURTH TERM SOLDIER VOTES MANIPULATED

WASHINGTON,— Two soldier citizens of South Carolina wrote for absentee ballots in that Democratic state. One was overseas; one in this country. Both received from South Carolina election officials a "Democratic ballot" which prevents them from voting for anyone except Roosevelt and the Democratic ticket.

It appears from evidence I have that any soldier or citizen asking for a ballot in South Carolina receives a Democratic ballot and cannot vote Republican. To cast a Republican vote, a citizen there must openly ask for a Republican ballot and thus publicly disclose his vote. —Paul Mallon.

FDR'S PRETENDED ISOLATIONISM

Most conspicuous of all "isolationists", up to the time that war was approaching our own nation, was none other than Franklin Delano Roosevelt. In the city of San Diego, in 1935, he declared that no matter what might happen on other continents, the United States should remain, "as the Father of Our Country prayed, unentangled and free". It was his repeated boast in the 1940 campaign that he had steered a course of neutrality designed to keep foreign wars from our shores. Several times just prior to the 1940 election he disavowed our interest in Europe's wars and promised "again and again" that American soldiers would never be sent to take part in foreign wars.—San Diego Union.

Moscow Style Purge Trial Completes 28th Week

Powerful Defense Knocks Out Federal Witnesses on Cross-Examination

WASHINGTON, October 22 (Special).—Twenty-eight long and weary weeks have passed since the Federal Department of Justice began the persecution trial of its 30 most vocal critics (since reduced by death and severance to 26).

A brilliant battery of 100% upstanding American attorneys, nearly all of them court appointed and entirely unpaid, have put up such a fight against this horribly unjust and un-American prosecution as has rarely been equalled in the history of our country.

These legal heroes, nevertheless, become weary and disgusted at the failure of the prosecution to present any real evidence of any sort of a conspiracy, of any efforts at subversion of our government, or the slightest intent or attempt to affect the morale of the armed forces.

Nearly all the American defendants have close relatives, sons, brothers and cousins in the service. The brilliant writer Viereck lost his elder son in the Italian campaign. The brother of defendant Lyman is an officer in the air corps, was wounded in action and has been cited for bravery and a medal of honor. McWilliams has three brothers in the service, one of whom visited the trial last summer. Mrs. Dilling's only son is a second lieutenant.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling and Mr. Dilling, her attorney, are enjoying a visit from their brilliant son, Kirk, who has recently been commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Sanctuary Deatherage and Broenstrup were officers in World War I. Frank Clark was a dispatch rider under Pershing; he participated in five major and six minor battle campaigns in France; his discharge is marked "excellent record".

Clark's 3,500 word letter to Governor Bricker was recently printed in the Congressional record.

WITNESSES FADE UNDER CROSS-EXAM.

Dr. Herman Rauschning, the prosecution's star witness thus far, left the witness stand after days and days of cross-examination, wilted, confused and muddled, his value as a witness marked down to Zero.

Dennis's work as a cross-examiner was a courtroom thriller, revealing legal genius of the highest order.

After Dennis had made a wreck of the Danzig refugee, other brilliant attorneys took him in tow, and left Dr. Rauschning at the bottom of the harbor.

Lawyer Dilling of Chicago made him admit that he (Rauschning) had not resigned from the Danzig senate, as had been intimated, but that he had been voted out, or expelled. Books and newspaper articles about him from overseas were brought out, which completely contradicted much of the doctor's testimony.

Harry A. Grant, attorney for Sage and Alderman of Detroit, asked him: "Is one who is Anti-Jewish necessarily a Nazi?"

"No," said the witness.

Rauschning also admitted that there was a "Jewish question" in the United States.

The record has reached nearly 14,000 pages and totals more than two million words. It cost a defendant $1,000 merely to buy one copy of the record. Only about half of the defendants are present each day; some have been away for weeks.

'MEIN KAMPF' TRANSLATIONS INCORRECT

WASHINGTON,—Several defense attorneys in the sedition case moved to strike from the record all verbal statements or writings attributed to "the co-conspirator Hitler," because prosecution witnesses had described the Fuehrer variously as insane and a liar.

Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher denied the motions, which counsel made during the interrogation of a department of justice translator and expert witness, Dr. Robert M. W. Kempner, former Reich criminal court judge.

Albert W. Dilling, a defense attorney, pointed out that the previous department of justice witness, Dr. Hermann Rauschning, German refugee author, had admitted having written of Hitler as a paranoiac.

"A paranoiac is an insane person," Mr. Dilling said, "and the writings of a mad person should not be brought into this case."

Dr. Kempner was cross-examined at length regarding his translations of certain passages of the writings of Hitler and Nazi officials.

Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, a defendant, former national leader of the German-American Bund, was allowed by the court, at the request of his attorney, P. Bateman Ennis, to question the witness about some of his transactions.

The soft-spoken, bearded Kunze, born in the United States, speaking unaccented English, asked Dr. Kempner if it would not be "more sporting, fairer" to translate some German phrases in a different way. The witness said he had stuck to the true meaning as closely as possible.

Dr. Kempner said, in response to numerous questions from various counsel, that the English-speaking people had no 100 per cent correct translation of "Mein Kampf," but the versions varied in particulars. He also contended it was impossible to translate Hitler's writings without "a knowlege of German as it is spoken since Hitler came into power."

ATTENTION, SHERWOOD AND ROSENMAN

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—Suggestion for a Fourth Term punch line:

"And while I am talking to you, workers and farmers, I give you one more assurance. I have said this before, but I shall say it again and again and again: The New Deal is not going to bring communism to the United States."
